

NATIVE PLANTS WORKSHOP

Explore the benefits of gardening with native plants at this FREE workshop!

Discover Portland's most common native plant communities, learn which species do well together, and get tips to help them thrive! A slideshow will highlight their unique features and desired growing conditions so you can decide which plants will work best in your own yard.

A black-and-white drawing of a native flower.

Date: Sunday, September 15th

Time: 1-3:30pm

Location: Common Ground, the Presbyterian Church in the Colonial Heights Neighborhood

Room: Social Hall

Address: 6704 SE 122nd Ave Portland OR 97236

Register online at:

www.emswcd.org/workshops

EMSWCD is committed to accessibility, diversity, and equity.

To request accommodation,
please contact us at least five business days in advance at:

(503) 222-7645 or rhesa@emswcd.org.

Brought to you by:

East Multnomah
Soil and Water
Conservation District

Hosted by:

Common Ground